

---

Missing puppy in Greenock area (West of Scotland)

Posted by Nicola - 2007/08/05 12:26

---

Hello all,

Was speaking to a friend this morning who informed me that a Lhasa Apso puppy had gone missing in Greenock on Friday night.

The puppy is 6 months old. Completely black with a tiny bit of white on his front paws, and a white tip on his tail.

If those of you in or near the West of Scotland could keep your eyes peeled for this wee pup, that would be great.

You never know, someone could have picked him up and travelled with him to god knows where in the UK.

Thanks.

=====

Re:Missing puppy in Greenock area (West of Scotland)

Posted by Nicola - 2007/08/09 16:28

---

This puppy was found this morning under a car at the esplanade in Greenock! He is alive and ok, that's all I know.

:cheer: :cheer:

=====