some of us up in't North of England prefer message-boardin' that watching the telly, if you know what I mean?

It's them adverts what seem to go on for ever an' ever, sometimes I forget what channel I'm watchin' while I'm not trying to pay attention to them. Oh God, then that Cilla Black comes on with her wrinkly reminding old codgers my age about dying soon. Still I like the Telly Tubbies and we've all got to have something to look forward too.

What do you look forward too?

Posts like this that put a smile on my face. :) Much better than the telly.
